PAULIST MISSION .- Rev. F thers J. P. O'Sullivan and John Burke, S. C. P., will begin a mission in St. Mary's Church tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock. rvices will also be held at 10:30 a. m. Services will also be held at 10:30 a.m., and 7:45 p. m. On week days the services will be at 5:30 and 8 a.m., and 4 and 7:45 p. m. The Paulists are the creation of Isaac T. Hecker, a New York baker. When a lad, working with his brother in his father's baker. house in 1835.'6 he became connected with the old time working men's party and while the bread was rising ran around the neighborhood before daylight pasting hand bills for working-men's meetings. He developed through Brook Ferm socialism, with Dana, Rip-ley and Thoresu, and in the "fifties" became a Roman Catholic, and entered a German religious order, spending some time in Belgium. Feeling in his heart that his ideal of an American religious order for work in America could be realized, he went without permission to Rome, his brother having supplied him with money, and sought there to interest the superior of the German order in his ideal. Instead he was rebuked for disobedience and degraded, his babit stripped from him, although, as he said, it was like tearing his skin off. So, left alone without friends in Rome, he remained for nine months. Providence befriended him and on presenting his plan to Pope Pius IX, he was released from his yows in the Gerbe realized, he went without permission was released from his vows in the Ger-man order, and authorized to carry out his ideal. This he did in 1857, and drawing round him kindred souls he became the leader of "the Congrega-tion of S'. Paul the Apostle," which has sloce spread its work through the United States-a distinctly American order. Some of his admirers say in him the Catholic Church recognized, or it may be consecrated, the Virginia principle that "Resistance to tyrants is obedience to God." As superior of his own order he left the will of his associown order he left the will of his associated free: "Put me on my obedience to do it" said a young brother to him not many years before his death. "I have never done that in my whole life," said he, "and I are not going to begin now." DECORATION DAYS .- The Decoration Day services under the auspices of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, of this city, will be held on Monday, the 26 b. Preparations for the anniversary have about been perfected, and the celebration this year will contrast well with those of former years. Forty-one years have nearly elapsed since the Alexandrians left their homes and cast their lot with the Southern Confederacy and thirty-seven have passed away since those who survived returned. These are to many among the most interesting pages of Alexandrian's history and should be kept fresh in the minds of old and young.

of old and young.

Alexandria and Belle Haven Councils of the Junior Order United American Mechanics will commemorate the memory of their deceased members on Sunday, May 25, by decorating the graves of such deceased members. This has been a custom with this order since has been a custom with this order since its organization. In addition to strewing the graves with flowers special services will be held in the Methodist Protestant cemetery, and several of the resident preachers will participate in the exercises, which are of a religious and patriotic nature.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN.—Shortly after six o'clock yesterday evening a buggy in which was seated Capt William Ballard, of Fairfax county, was struck by a northbound train of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, at Spring Park, and the occupant had a narrow escape from being killed. Captain Ballard was attempting to cross the tracks of the company ing to cross the tracks of the company streets. The train hands, after much at the time. The buggy was completely demolished, but the horse was the merchandise and extinguishing the unicjured. Capt. Ballard's left collar fire. Fortunately a barrel of coal oil bone was broken and he sustained serious bruises. The train was immediately stopped, and he was picked up and conveyed to the office of Dr. W. M. Smith where it was ascertained that his injuries were not of a serious nature. The accident attracted a large crowd. The train was in charge of Conductor Chauncey and Mctorman Harke.

THE WEATHER .- The fair and cool weather of the past few days was followed last night by cloudy conditions and higher temperature. There were light showers at times during the morning which has brightened vegetation considerably. The rain and subsequent gunshine of today will render strawperries plentiful in a few days.

WALLACE PRIZE CONTEST.—The Wallace prize contest in public speak-ing took place last night in Whit le Hall, Theological Seminary, near this city. The subject chosen by the faculty for the contest was "The Attitude of the Clergy to the observance of the Lord's Day under modern condi-tions." Six members of the senior class entered, and of these the success-ful contestants were Mr. Paca Kennedy, of the Episcopal Diocese of West Virginia, who won the first prize, and Mr. Robb Whits, jr., of the diocese of Virginia who won the second prize. The character of all the addresses was much above the average, and reflected great credit upon the training of Mr. Reade, the instructor in elecution. The judges were Rev. P. P. Phillips of this city, and Messre. Cazenove G. Lee, W. H. Randolph, John Y. Worthing-ton and Willoughby Reade, of Seminary Hill.

LEG CRUSHED .- Elias Redman, s seventien year-old boy, who was em-ployed as a rallway brakeman, slipped and fell while st work on a construction train near Fairfax station, yester-day moroing, and was caught between two cars. His left leg was badly crush-ed and and he suffered intense pain before he could be released from his perilous position. He was attended by tion was performed at the Emergency Hospital. The leg was cut off above the knee. The patient withstood the operation very well and soon recovered from the shock. He will be kept under treatment at the hospital for several weeks, at least, before he will be allow-ed to return to his home in Fairfax.

A citizen who saw the man recognized him as Michael Dorsch, of Washington, and it is believed his sons carry on a bakery at 18th and L streets in that city. He will be held up to his relatives can be communicated wi h.

DESTROYING FLOWERS .- Complaints come from various quarters of the city of the wanton destruction of flowers by boys who invade yards in the night. The police have been notified and they are endeavoring to capture the offend-ers. In some instances householders stand guard during the early part of the night and endeavor to catch the mischievous urchine. Last night one gentlemen succeeded in surprising two boys in his yard. He took possession of their hats which led to their indentification and their parents were notified.

SENT TO THE CHAIN GANG.—Barney Blohards and Ernest Mills, two young men who often figure in the Police Court, were sent to the chain gang this morning in default of the chain gang this morning in default of the payment of a fine of five dollars each. They were arrested for disorderly conduct and assaulting two soldiers at the Royal street station of the electric railway last Wednesday night.

BREWERY SOLD .- Under a decree of of the U.S. Court of this district in the suit of J. W. Griggs and G. S. Johnson, trustees, vs. the Consumers' Brewery, Messrs. L. A. Bailey and R. W. Moore, special commissioners, today sold at the county court house the Consumers' Brewery property, situated at Rosslyn, to Barnett Katz, of Washington, for $160,350.
